

5th Annual Waterbury Holiday Stroll Saturday, December 3rd Activities Listing

Waterbury Artisans Boutique-American Legion; 11:00-7:00pm; Back by popular demand! Many of community's talented, local artisans will be on hand showcasing and selling their beautiful wares.

Waterbury Library - Season of Lights Story & Craft Time Candles: Saturday, December 3 at 10:00am

Bridgeside Books 3rd Annual Holiday Open House-9:30am-7pm; homemade cookies and hot mulled cider served; Book signing with Eric Nuse 'Vermont Wild Volume I and Volume II' at 11:00am, and hors d'oeuvres and refreshments served at 5:00pm.

Axel's Frame Shop-Extended hours and eggnog!

Waterbury Pharmacy-stop by to see the Community Spirit Tree bedecked with photo ornaments taken by Revitalizing Waterbury at the October Harvest Festival. Didn't get your photo taken that day - make your own to add.

CC Outdoor Store-2nd Anniversary Sale 10:00-4:00pm at the new location on Rt. 2, just before the Flea Market.

Cork Wine Bar & Market-Open at 12pm, Live Music in the evening.

Kinney Drugs-Cider, Coffee & Donuts daylong.

Lake Champlain Chocolates-Open House with special sales, samples, hot chocolate.

Stowe Street Emporium-Open till 7pm and serving refreshments throughout the day.

Sweet Tooth's-Open till 7pm, Santa visiting 1-3pm, specials and serving refreshments throughout the day.

The Tiny Acorn-Kids Ornament Making, Face Painting/Entertainment and Refreshments.

River of Light Lantern Parade-5:00pm; Begins at the State Office Complex U, up Main Street, Stowe Street, Bridge Street to Rusty Parker Park.

Waterbury Rotary's Annual tree lighting in Rusty Parker Park to coincide with arrival of River of Light Lantern Parade (approximately 5:45pm).

Start collecting or add stamps to your Wrap It Up and Win card.

Look for the snowperson sign at participating businesses.